

Senior Air Conditioning Installers

EFFTech is looking for a senior air conditioning installer. The successful applicant will have had at least five (5) years' experience installing or servicing mini-split and VRF systems on both small and major projects.

The successful applicant will be expected to take responsibility for specific projects ensuring that installation standards and schedules are maintained at all times and will have the following:

- Completed a recognized apprenticeship
- On completion of apprenticeship had a further five (5) years field experience installing mini-split and VRF system
- Be able to accurately read drawings, interpret specifications ensuring each project is installed to meet individual project requirements
- Work with owners, architects, project managers and engineers that maybe involved on individual projects
- Supervisory experience would assist as it is envisioned that the successful applicant will be involved in major projects supervising other trades people
- Be able to maintain accurate as-built records and to participate in project close out including system commissioning, test and balance and project handover

Interested applicants should apply with Resume' and References to:

Group HR Manager

EFFTech

P.O. Box HM 719

Hamilton HM CX

Or via email: recruitment@basg.bm:

Closing date for applications: April 23rd, 2018