Live-Out Child Caregiver/Housekeeper

Our client, Mr. Andrew Smith, requires a Live-Out Child Caregiver/Housekeeper to support his family. Duties will primarily include the housekeeping of a large home, inside and out, to include heavy cleaning, laundry, ironing, grocery shopping, and meal preparation. Childcare responsibilities include assisting a stay at home mother with looking after three young children, including meal preparation, maintaining their sleep/play routines, providing stimulating activities, accompanying them to playgroups, and providing transportation to/from school and activities.

Applicants must be prepared to work a 40 hour work week, with overtime as required, including weekends and on occasion, travel with the family. Babysitting and house sitting will also be required as requested. These duties and responsibilities will be amended from time to time.

The successful applicant must possess a minimum of five years of experience in a similar role, including previous experience working with toddlers and infants. Applicants must also possess strong swimming skills, a valid First Aid/CPR certification, and a valid Bermuda driver's license with an impeccable driving record. Applicants should note that the role is for a one year contract, as the family's needs are expected to change in 2019.
