Legal Counsel

Legal & Enforcement Department

Bermuda Monetary Authority is seeking the services of a skilled and capable individual to work as Legal Counsel within our Legal & Enforcement Department. Reporting to the Deputy Director, Legal Services, the post-holder will perform a variety of duties, including applying advanced analytical skills to provide legal interpretations and advice regarding Bermuda law, rules and regulations. In addition, the post-holder will draft commercial contracts and internal policies, and represent the Department on internal and external committees as required.

This is a key role for the Authority and the post-holder will be responsible for but not limited to:

- Providing legal advice and recommending appropriate action to line departments in relation to all aspects of the Authority's duties, functions and the exercise of its powers as required
- Reviewing documentation in relation to the Authority's internal committees and providing legal support to various standing or ad hoc committees or work groups
- Establishing and maintaining effective relationships with the Authority's supervisory units, other local agencies and senior management
- Participating in meetings with regulated entities as required
- Conducting legal and regulatory research as directed
- Providing legal advice and guidance in relation to information sharing and cooperation with other financial services regulators
- Representing the Authority at various local and international meetings, conferences, seminars and meetings with financial services regulatory bodies, local agencies and the financial services industry to manage, develop and maintain key relationships whilst keeping abreast of industry trends when required
- Performing other related work and special projects as assigned in accordance with competencies normally associated with the post

This position requires a proven technical and business background. Therefore, the post-holder must have:

- An accredited law degree and be a member of the Bermuda Bar Association
- A minimum of seven years' relevant legal experience in a regulatory or legal environment
- A working knowledge/practice of Bermuda financial services law and contract law
- A working knowledge of the domestic financial services industry
- Strong analytical, interpersonal and communication skills (both written and oral), research capabilities, resourcefulness and creative abilities
- The ability to interface with the financial services industry, the Bermuda government, local agencies and various international regulatory bodies

Bermuda Monetary Authority is the integrated regulator of the financial services sector in Bermuda. We offer broad exposure to international regulatory issues, special projects and a variety of work experience.

If you are looking for a challenging opportunity in a team environment, we invite you to submit your application online via our 'Careers' page on www.bma.bm. Applications for this position must be received no later than 27th June 2018.
