Manager - Advisory

PwC is your opportunity of a lifetime. As Bermuda's leading professional services network, our more than 200 people are part of a learning culture where teamwork and collaboration are encouraged, excellence is rewarded, and unparalleled coaching and career development programmes are provided. You'll be inspired by the engaging work you do, the diverse people on your team, and the clients we serve – from global organisations to innovative local businesses.

As an Advisory professional, you'll be part of a team seeking to add tangible value to clients through our insights and delivery. Your role will be varied and often client facing, supporting public and private sector consulting projects, including those focused on procurement, governance, spend analysis, stock optimisation, product standardisation, category management, contract/vendor management, procurement policy and procedures, and IT systems.

Candidates must demonstrate proven knowledge and success with leadership, strategic and creative thinking, problem solving, and individual initiative.

Responsibilities will include and are not limited to:

- Execution and oversight of quality client deliverables with a focus on client needs;
- Design and implementation of strategies related to procurement, organisation design, governance, leadership and people analytics;
- Building solid and collaborative relationships with team members and fostering a productive team environment;
- Managing day-to-day activities and deliverables of consulting team staff, assisting in work prioritization and alignment to PwC methodologies;
- Facilitating client workshops related to corporate strategy, annual operating plan production, capability planning, and team effectiveness;
- Support the PwC Advisory leadership in scoping, pricing, and managing negotiations for consulting client engagements;
- Preparing and reviewing documentation for PwC's risk and assurance processes related to new client engagements;
- Preparing PwC's responses to Requests for Proposals;
- Building and maintaining trust-based client relationships;
- Delivering internal training sessions for staff and partners on specific areas of focus;

The opportunity of a lifetime
