KENNY PAUL (1934-2018)

A dressing-room joker who took cricket seriously

Colin Thompson

St George's Cricket Club are mourning the death of former Cup Match bowler Kenny Paul.

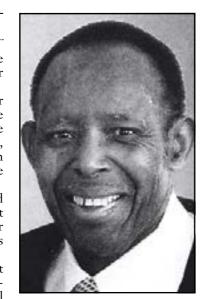

Γhe left-arm seam bowler died at the weekend at the age of 84. Paul, who played league cricket for Pond Hill Stars, made his Cup Match debut in 1959 at Wellington Oval where Somerset won by 27 runs.

The next year he played an integral role in helping St George's regain the trophy after beating Somerset by ten-wickets at Somerset Cricket Club.

"I always remember that game because we bowled Somerset out twice in one day," Cal "Bummy" Symonds, the former St George's captain recalled.

"Kenny Paul and Jackie Durham opened up and Jackie got seven wickets and Kenny three. Somerset were out half an hour before lunch [on the second day] and we had a first innings lead of around 130 runs, so we sent them back in.

"[In the] second innings, I told Kenny he is going to have to stay bowling at one end. I always kept some mints in my pocket for sugar in case he started to get tired and Kenny bowled 25 overs straight in the second innings.

"Kenny bowled 17 overs in the first innings and so he bowled 42 overs in one day. He was always 100 per cent fit.

"He was a colourful fellow who had a lot charisma. He always had jokes in the dressing room but when he went onto the field it was strictly business.

"He was a real trojan and is going to be a big miss in the cricket fraternity.

Paul claimed 46 wickets in Cup Match between 1959 and 1967 at an average of 13.1.

"Kenny, Alfred 'Fleas' Hall and Jackie Durham were the top bowlers before Clarence Parfitt came along," Dennis Wainwright, the former St George's wicketkeeper-batsman, said.

"We always had top bowlers but Kenny always stood out.

"He was a joy to keep for and he was one of those bowlers like 'Fleas" Hall who could bowl very consistently on the spot. "Kenny was a great fellow to have in the team and it was a lot of fun. He was full of humour and always had a joke and loved to sing like Jackie Durham."

Harbour claim medal haul in Ontario

The Harbour Gold Squad claimed 25 medals, including 15 gold, at the Gus Ryder Memorial Cup Invitational at the Olympium Pool in Etobicoke, Ontario, last week.

The seven swimmers representing Harbour were Alyson Scherer, Lindsay Scherer, Finn Moseley, Myeisha Sharrieff, Caitlin Coleman, Giada Dudley-Pun and Brandon Adkins.

They also secured seven silver and three bronze medals, as well as setting 31 personal bests in 38 swims. Coaches Shona Palmer and Jenny Smatt were delighted with team's performances.

"The swimmers applied themselves in training all week, set their goals and each of the them rose to the challenges presented," Smatt said.

Alyson Scherer and Finn Moseley set the tone early in the meet, making significant improvements to their personal bests and capturing gold in the 100 metres freestyle events. They posted times of 57.01 and 1:01.52 respectively.

On Sunday Sharrieff captured gold in the girls 11 to 12 100 freestyle in 1:06.39; Scherer won another gold in the girls 15 and over 200 freestyle with a personal best of 2:18.09 and Moseley claimed gold in the boys 13 to 14 50 backstroke in a personal best time of 30.83.

In the 50 freestyle Harbour swimmers took gold in several age groups, all achieving personal best times.

"I'm really proud of each of the swimmers' performances and as a team they came together to support and encourage each other in practice and in competition." head coach Shona Palmer said.

Queen Of Bermuda set for Breeders' Cup

Scupham hopes Englishman Motion will be the perfect trainer for Queen Of Bermuda as he has had plenty of success working with fillies.

"Graham's view is that in America she could potentially get up to a mile, which is where the serious money is for her," he added.

"They race around a bend, so they're not leaving the stall and going hell for leather. If Graham can get her to relax and race over a mile, there's a lot of pickings

Bought at the Craven Breeze Up Sale in April for 230,000 guineas (about $293,382), Queen Of Bermuda has had am impressive season, romping to victory at the Ayr Gold Cup in Scotland and winning a Listed race at Deauville, Normandy.

Scupham believes she compares favourably with Johnny Barnes, the BTR's previous flagship horse, who had a memorable four-year career, finishing runner-up in a group one race at Saint-Cloud, Paris, and winning a group three at Deauville. "Queen Of Bermuda is already worth more than we paid for her [as a broodmare]," Scupham said. "She loves her racing, thrives on her racing and never puts in a bad performance.

"She never gives up and is like Johnny Barnes in that respect. She gives 100 per cent every

Former athletes to receive magazine awards

Lawrence Trott

Kenny Paul, the former St George's Cup Match bowler, who died at the weekend, is one of the 68 former athletes set to be honoured at The Sport Bermuda Magazine Awards ceremony next month.

The list was confirmed this week with the recipients, representing 30 sports, to be recognised for their outstanding accomplishments at the gala event at Ruth Seaton James Auditorium on Saturday, November 24.

In addition there will be four major awards, with Cal "Bummy" Symonds, the St George's Cup Match captain in the 1960s, the recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award.

The Dudley Eve Sports Administration Award will go to Donald Dane, the former Devonshire Colts coach and later the Bermuda Football Association president.

Charles Marshall, another former BFA president and longtime referee, will receive the WF "Chummy" Hayward award and former triathlete Jim Butterfield the Humantarian award.

"We simply wish to award those that have made impactful and valuable contributions to Bermuda via sport and sporting talent and commitment to raising the standard of their particular discipline or disciplines in many cases," said Mark Jennings, the creator and author of Sport Bermuda Magazine.

"There are so many individuals that have benefited and in turn returned the blessing to the game of their favour and even beyond, and we simply want to mark the many contributors to this wonderful thing called

The event is the brainchild of Jennings who, until recently, was the host of the popular Sports Zone talk show on Magic

The ceremony will serve as a preamble to the re-launch of the Sport Bermuda Magazine in January following a hiatus as Jennings pursued overseas roles at ESPN in radio, as well as later becoming director of the Arsenal Football Club Academy in Augusta, Georgia.

A few years ago he helped introduce the Sports Zone show, acting as host before leaving to devote more time to the awards show and the re-launch of the magazine. It is hoped the awards shows will become an annual

Other local athletes to be honoured include triple jumper Brian Wellman, Winston Jones, coach of the Big Blue Machine softball team; boxers Clarence Hill, who won the bronze medal at the 1976 Olympic Games in Montreal, and Troy Darrell; Leroy "Tubby" Richardson, the former St Georoge's Cup Match captain and the oldest surviving former Cup Match player and Ed Sherlock and Debbie Butterfield in road running.

The awards show will start at 6.30pm and be co-hosted by comedian Earlwin "Bootsie" Wolffe and retired sportscaster Joe L Brown.
