

Are you an educator who wants to make a real difference?
Saltus has the following opportunities commencing in September 2019.

As Bermuda's premier co-educational, independent day school for students aged 4 to 18, Saltus prides itself on a well-earned reputation for a rigorous academic programme that prepares students to succeed at universities around the world. Combined with our focus on community, inclusivity, and creativity, Saltus students have the opportunity to become compassionate, independent thinkers with a global mindset and the confidence to pursue their dreams.

Instrumental Music Teacher - Brass

The successful candidate will be a qualified and experienced brass teacher, capable of teaching Trumpet, Trombone, French Horn, Euphonium and Tuba to students at the Primary (Elementary, Junior) and Secondary level. In addition, the successful candidate will manage and direct large and small ensembles. This position involves preparing students for ABRSM exams, including theory and report writing.

Instrumental Music Teacher – Woodwind Specialist

The successful candidate will be a qualified and experienced woodwind teacher, capable of teaching Flute, Clarinet and Saxophone to students at the Primary (Elementary, Junior) and Secondary level. Ability to teach Double Reed (Oboe and Bassoon) would be an advantage. In addition, the successful candidate will manage and direct large and small ensembles. This position involves preparing students for ABRSM exams, including theory and report writing.

Additional positions of responsibility may be available for qualified candidates.

Candidates for all positions:

- Must be a qualified teacher with a minimum of three years' teaching experience.
- Must have a degree in music and be highly proficient in performance.
- Must be licensed by or qualified to be licensed by the Bermuda Educators Council.
- Must have proven ability/success in teaching Primary (Elementary, Junior) and Secondary level students both individually and in groups.
- Must demonstrate the ability to work in an academic environment.
- Must have a proven ability in the use of information technology, with the ability to arrange music using Sibelius.
- Must have excellent communication skills, with a high level of personal musicianship and enthusiasm about music, with the ability to motivate and inspire learners.
- A proficiency in keyboard and/or knowledge of professional audio systems would be an advantage.
- Must demonstrate the ability to work as a team to further the goals of the Music and Performing Arts Department.
- Must have a commitment to the principles of independent education and be willing to contribute to extracurricular activities and the broader life of the School.
- Must be committed to academic excellence and strive for positive relations with all students, parents and colleagues alike.
- Must demonstrate flexibility and adaptability to change.
- Must be willing to provide cover for absences and/or advisory.
- Must be able to thrive in a busy environment.
- Action researcher.
- Sense of humor.
- Clean criminal record.

Candidates are requested to e-mail a cover letter and resume to the People & Culture Department at:

Email: HumanResources@saltus.bm
Saltus Grammar School
P.O. Box HM 2224, Hamilton HM JX, Bermuda
Telephone: 441-292-6177

All applications must include contact details of three persons who are willing to provide confidential professional references, at least one of whom should be your current employer.

CLOSING DATE: January 31, 2019