

Krys Global (Bermuda) is looking for Senior Analysts to assist with the oversight of court supervised and cross-border insolvencies, liquidations, and restructurings; litigation support; forensic accounting; and AML/ATF consulting engagements.

The successful candidate must be capable of preparing and adhering to work plans and budgets, identify client priorities, as well as employing appropriate discretion and professionalism in performing his/her duties. The successful applicant will be expected to demonstrate good judgment and foresight in decision making and provide effective guidance and managerial support to all members of the organisation. Exceptional report writing skills and interpersonal characteristics are essential. This position will require the candidate to meet tight deadlines.

An insolvency or accounting background is required and should have obtained a qualification previously in one or both from a recognized institution or professional body. Any applicant must have had at least three years of relevant professional experience. In addition to the minimum requirements and experience, those candidates who also possess experience in litigation support and/or AML/ATF consulting are preferred. Candidates should be willing and able to travel and accept extended secondment positions with our other offices and relationship partners. Application deadline is March 15th, 2019

Apply online at www.KRyS-Global.com +1 441 292 0818 • Chancery Hall • 1st Floor • 52 Reid Street • Bermuda