

Upper Primary/Middle School Teacher

The Bermuda Centre for Creative Learning (BCCL) is seeking an Upper Primary/Middle School teacher for the 2019-20 academic year.

BCCL is a private school that enrolls students up to age 15, who have been assessed and diagnosed with learning differences such as dyslexia, auditory processing disorder, ADHD and other language-based disorders. Their non-traditional environment facilitates each student's individual learning styles, through a personalized learning approach. BCCL follows the UK National Curriculum along with the International Primary and Middle Years Curriculum. Students work at their own skill level in a small student to teacher ratio, with a focus on creating confident and independent learners.

Responsibilities and duties include, but are not limited to:

- Design and lead students in lessons that are engaging and interactive, and follow best and current teaching practices for students with learning differences and a variety of abilities
- Design and lead students in community based-outing experiences, including supervising students in swimming activities
- Develop and lead students in daily mindfulness and social thinking activities
- Approach teaching in a team-centered environment
- Attend events outside of school hours such as: weekly staff meetings, open houses and professional development sessions
- Enjoy working with children in a busy educational setting

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in education or relevant field
- A minimum of one year experience working with children with learning differences
- Licensed with the Bermuda Educator's Council, or willing apply for a license
- SCARS and CPR/First Aid certified, or available to attend training certification

Applicants must send the following: CV, separate cover letter and two professional reference letters to: info@bccl.bm. Deadline for application, 25th of March 2019.
