

Our clients, the Bell and Smale families, require a full time
SHARED CHILD CAREGIVER/ HOUSEKEEPER

Successful candidate will look after two very active households with three children in one family, and two in the other. In addition to caring for the children when home, this position involves general housekeeping, heavy cleaning, laundry, ironing, watering plants and garden, and the daily walking and care of two large dogs. Also includes grocery shopping, and meal preparation for the families. Flexible hours required but generally 40 hours per week shared between the families, some evening work, weekends and holidays, often at short notice due to employer's health. Must be willing to take care of the children on a sole charge basis and the home in the employers' absence. A non-smoker, the candidate must have at least 3 years' full-time experience of childcare and daily housekeeping in a private home. Experience of special meal preparation for those with food allergies would be helpful. Send resume and letters of reference from previous employers to:
