

Happy 36th Wedding Anniversary Colin & Julia Washington

*For each of the years that pass by it's like still going to school you're still learning as life passes by.
And it's like every day is fishing day
but not catching day.
Love is the most natural, fondness in it's most common sense.
That my wisdom thwat I understand.
Love Always
Colin*
