SSL prides itself on operating an efficient and clutter free terminal. This is important when attempting to work safely within the confines of the Hamilton Port.

In an effort to ensure that cargo is removed in a timely manner, the above demurrage rates have been established.

Please note that the first weekend is free and not counted in the “free days”. However, the above rates will apply to all other weekends if cargo is not removed.

The “free days” for Breakbulk are determined from the day that it is actually stripped.

Demurrage must be paid before cargo is released from the terminal.
