

Careers, by BUTTERFIELD.

Take a step in the right direction.

At Butterfield, we provide financial services with a personal touch, we focus on results, we value relationships, and we celebrate success. If that sounds like your kind of company, then consider this opportunity to become part of a collaborative team of professionals at the world's leading, independent offshore bank and trust company.

Bank Auditor

The position reports to the Vice President, Group Internal Audit. In performing financial, operational and management audits, assesses the adequacy of internal controls and ensures that all laws and regulations are observed.

Your responsibilities will include:

- conducting and/or assisting in specialized audits of banking activities, reviewing activities, recording findings and discussing the findings
- preparing individual audit work papers and records
- preparing written reports of results and findings of audits under direction
- assisting in following-up with concerned departments/subsidiaries and ensuring that approved recommendations or remedial action has been taken; recording summaries of actions and reporting delays as necessary
- assisting in providing direction and training to trainees
- assisting external auditors and other departments as required
- assisting in fraud initiatives, including investigations, providing statements to law enforcement, reporting as prescribed by legislation and appearing as a witness as necessary.

Internal Audit

Butterfield's Internal Audit department provides independent, objective assessments of the activities of the Bank's businesses and functions using a systematic and disciplined approach to evaluating the effectiveness of risk management, control and governance processes. Its scope covers the entire Group's operations including subsidiary and associated companies in all locations throughout the world.

Your qualifications and skills include:

- a university degree with professional accounting qualification (CA, CPA, ACA, FCA) and three years relevant post-qualification experience
- internal audit experience preferred in the banking and trust industries
- strong analytical and problem solving skills
- ability to multi-task and prioritize
- must have high ethical standards, and the ability to build trusting relationships
- good management, communication, mediation and consulting skills
- results oriented and customer service focused with the ability to multi-task, prioritise and work toward strict deadlines

Why Butterfield?

Butterfield is a leading independent offshore bank and trust company. With more than 1,300 financial services professionals across ten international jurisdictions, the Butterfield experience is enhanced by robust learning and development opportunities, comprehensive benefits, and preferred rates on a variety of proprietary financial services. Guided by our core values of approachable, collaborative, empowered and impactful, we provide a respectful environment where we value the diversity of our employees and the talents and experiences they bring. With a 160-year tradition of service excellence we empower individuals to achieve their potential and make a positive impact on our business, our clients and our communities.

Does this sound like you?

All applications should be forwarded via email to resumes@butterfieldgroup.com.

Closing date:

27 July 2020

Let's start a conversation.

butterfieldgroup.com

