

Commercial Litigation Advocate

Conyers Dill & Pearman specialises in company & commercial law, commercial litigation and private client matters. Established in 1928, with offices across the globe, the Company advises on the laws of Bermuda, British Virgin Islands and Cayman Islands.

We require the services of an experienced advocate specialising in commercial litigation, including insolvency and restructuring, for our busy litigation practice. The successful candidate must have at least five (5) years' relevant experience and be able to work under extreme pressure.

The candidate will be required to undertake a wide range of contentious commercial work for international and local clients including trust litigation, shareholder disputes, and corporate insolvency and restructuring.

The candidate must have excellent qualifications and relevant experience as an advocate in high level contentious litigation and arbitration. Experience in all aspects of family law, including; divorce and relationship breakdown; all aspects relating to ancillary relief; prenuptial & postnuptial agreements; and international family law would be an asset

This is an excellent opportunity for an ambitious individual to develop their career within a flexible environment and join an expanding and successful firm in a supportive and encouraging environment.
