

"Inspiring Socially Conscious Independent Thinkers"

Somersfield Academy, Bermuda's Montessori and International Baccalaureate school, seeks a temporary experienced Primary Music teacher. Somersfield is proud to enroll a diverse student body, promotes diversity in its hiring process and is committed to building an inclusive community and culturally diverse faculty to work with our students and families. The Music teacher will work with a range of student learners across multiple grades and preference will be given to candidates with experience at these levels.

"We seek teachers who are interested and passionate about issues of inclusion, diversity, and social justice"

TEMPORARY MUSIC TEACHER - PART TIME

Required Experience, Training & Education

- Bachelor's or Master's Degree in a Music field
- BEC teaching license
- Three or more years of Music teaching experience
- A dynamic instructor who can reach, teach, and differentiate instruction as needed for a range of learners
- Familiarity and comfort working with a globally diverse groups of parents, students and colleagues
- Teaching remotely
- Strong written and oral communication to effectively communicate with school community

Responsibilities

- Deliver a comprehensive and robust Music program for beginning, intermediate and advanced students to teach music theory, musicology, voice, instrumental music and performance
- Create an inquiry-based classroom environment where students' ideas are central and content knowledge and skills are deepened through compelling questions, projects, and instruction
- Effectively use technology to deliver curriculum
- Provide regular evaluation of student knowledge of content
- Collaboration with colleagues to share best practices and ensure student mastery of standards

If this sounds like the opportunity you've been waiting for, please submit cover letter including full name, citizenship and resume with two current dated letters of professional reference to:

Mrs. Dionne Dowling
Somersfield Academy
107 Middle Road
Devonshire, DV06

E: hr@somersfield.bm

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS:
SEPTEMBER 21, 2020

Canadian
Accredited
Independent
Schools