

KRyS Global is a boutique corporate fraud investigation and dispute resolution firm, with professionals working from offices in the Cayman Islands, British Virgin Islands, Bermuda, Guernsey, USA and Singapore.

We are seeking applications for the below listed position to be based in Bermuda.

SENIOR ANALYST

The Senior Analyst will support management and be responsible for performing the day-to-day case work on corporate recovery cases including local and cross-border insolvencies, liquidations, restructurings, financial investigations, and litigation support. The successful applicant is expected to be client focused and be able to demonstrate a working knowledge of insolvency and corporate recovery assignments and an awareness of the strategies and plans for engagements. They must be able to exercise good judgement and foresight in routine decisions, cope with uncertainty, be able to create processes and structures to implement and follow through on the engagement plan and be able to identify and set priorities with minimal supervision and understand how to work efficiently. The successful candidate is expected to perform his/her duties with appropriate confidentiality and professionalism, demonstrate initiative and accountability and be able to operate in a demanding environment.

The successful candidate must have: Sufficient experience working on court supervised insolvency and restructuring cases being at least three years of relevant professional experience * An insolvency, accounting, and/or legal background and a qualification from an internationally recognized institution or professional body * A demonstrable working knowledge of insolvency principles/frameworks and corporate recovery assignments together with an awareness of the strategies and plans for such engagements * A proven ability to practically apply knowledge to solve problems and exceptional report writing skills * Strong interpersonal characteristics * Sound time management skills and proven ability to successfully administer multiple projects through to completion * An ability to meet tight deadlines is required to be successful in this demanding and driven industry * A willingness and capacity to put in extra time when necessary and/or travel at short notice * A high degree of competence in Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Outlook

MANAGER

The Manager will be a dynamic individual responsible for performing case work and supervising personnel and client priorities. The Manager will employ appropriate discretion and professionalism in performing his/her duties. The successful candidate is expected to demonstrate good judgment and foresight in decision making and provide effective guidance and managerial support to all members of the organization. The candidate is expected to be fully involved in business development and marketing initiatives.

The successful candidate must have: Sufficient experience working on and managing court supervised insolvency and restructuring cases being at least four or five years of relevant professional experience * An insolvency, accounting, and/or legal background and a qualification from an internationally recognized institution or professional body * A strong knowledge of insolvency principles/frameworks and corporate recovery assignments together with an awareness of the strategies and plans for such engagements * Good judgment and foresight in decision making * A proven ability to practically apply knowledge to solve problems and exceptional report writing skills * Sound time management skills and proven ability to successfully administer multiple projects through to completion * An ability to meet tight deadlines is required to be successful in this demanding and driven industry * A willingness and capacity to put in extra time when necessary and/or travel at short notice * A high degree of competence in Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Outlook * Prior experience participating in firm business development activities * Excellent client relationship, team leading, interpersonal and communication skills.

The salary for this posts of Senior Analyst and Manager will be commensurate with experience and qualifications, with comprehensive benefits package.

No solicitations from recruitment firms please. Written applications along with a detailed résumé should be submitted via <https://krysglobal.bamboohr.com/jobs/> no later than 5 March 2021