

Trust and Private Client Attorney

Conyers is currently seeking to recruit a qualified attorney to join their busy Private Client & Trust Practice. This is a great opportunity to work with a dynamic team.

Our Private Client & Trust lawyers provide top-tier advice to ultra-high net worth clients with family trust structures, both in original design of the structure or restructuring in adjustment to changing tax or family circumstances, as well as ongoing administration, particularly private trust companies and those owning businesses. Specializing in both structuring advice and contentious work, the Firm advises clients and onshore attorneys on the laws of Bermuda, the British Virgin Islands, and the Cayman Islands. Conyers regularly advises on the creation of offshore trusts for international clients for private wealth succession and long-term management.

What Will You Do

- Work with a broad range of international private clients and institutions in the area of personal and commercial trusts, structuring transactions, as well as contributing to marketing and other professional development initiatives
- Advise the Firms' licensed trust company on day-to-day legal issues, including trustees' duties and obligations owed to beneficiaries, as well as the review of contracts
- Provision of advice on an unsupervised basis
- Draft trust and other legal documentation, which may include coordination of company law documents

Suitable candidates will also be able to demonstrate:

- At least three (3) years' successful experience post qualification, within these areas of the law, in order to advise on the substantial matters that will be assigned
- Proven experience and a high degree of knowledge in the area of international Trust and Estate Planning
- Ability to communicate effectively with local and overseas clients, international tax attorneys and other advisers
- Capable of dealing with a varied and heavy workload
- Prior experience in advising trust companies and / or high net worth clients in the international context.
