

Cook- Casual/ On Call

Westmeath Residential & Nursing Care Home is a registered charity committed to providing quality accommodations and care for our senior citizens in a safe, clean and pleasant environment that fosters dignity, choice and physical independence whenever possible. We are seeking qualified health care professionals with a strong positive work ethic to join our team.

Cook- Casual/On Call:

- Take instruction from the Chef with regards to the daily / weekly menu
- Assisting Chef can include, but is not limited to breakfast, lunch, chopping, peeling, preparing meals, desserts, baking and supper preparations
- Knowledge and assisting the Chef with understanding the Residents' dietary needs, understanding that dietary needs can change day to day
- Mincing, pureeing or cutting food as needed for Residents
 - Prepare assorted sandwiches daily for alternate meal choices
 - Prepare desserts under instruction of the Chef
- Assist with and / or receive deliveries from vendors, ensuring that delivery items match and are checked off against items invoiced •Store delivered goods
- To clean the kitchen top to bottom. Includes, but is not limited to floors, counters, all equipment, refrigerators, freezers, ovens, stove, warming buffet, pots, food preparation surfaces, steamers, microwaves – all as per schedule set out by Chef or more frequently if necessary
- Must have flexibility to work a rotating schedule
- Assume Chef responsibilities in kitchen in Cook's absence

Cook- Casual/ on Call required qualifications:

Previous experience as a cook in a similar setting Experience working in a team environment with the ability to communicate effectively with others in a friendly and professional manner. Baking Ability preferred.

To apply, email resume with letter of interest to:
april@westmeath.bm

Mailing address: 28 Pitt's Bay Road, Pembroke HM06

Application Deadline: September 15, 2021