We are seeking for an energetic, responsible and trustworthy individual with childcare experience. Primary duties include full-time care of newborn to toddler-age child, providing a safe, caring and stimulating environment and age appropriate developmental activities at all times. General household duties will include caring for house plants, cleaning, laundry, ironing, grocery shopping and meal preparation. Expected hours of work are generally Monday to Friday 8am to 6pm, with flexibility to babysit on weekday evenings, weekends, public holidays and possible travel with the family if needed. Must be able to house sit as required, often over extended holiday periods.

The successful candidate will have a minimum of five years' experience caring for children in a busy, home environment, a true passion for children, be well-organized and proactive in organizing age-appropriate activities. A valid, clean Bermuda car license, CPR/First-aid and SCARS certification are required.
