

Managing Director

Astwood Dickinson is seeking an experienced Managing Director to run its International, luxury jewelry and watch business and its sunglass business. Successful applicant must be committed to developing and improving the company's short, medium and long term business objectives and goals.

Applicant will be expected to manage, plan and develop an established business while training and developing a team of staff who will be expected to work to world-class standards. The successful applicant will be expected to drive the sales division of the business while working with, and reporting to the Owners to develop the brand and look for opportunities commensurate with the modern retail market in a destination location.

Applicants should have a minimum of 10 years retail jewelry and watch experience and have previously worked at Director level. This experience will have been gained in a high-end, brand driven environment and the successful applicant will have experience of jewelry and watch buying, building vendor relationships and have a minimum of 5 years experience gained in the travel retail industry, having experienced the unique demands of modern tourism/ cruise business places on a branded retail business.

The successful candidate will also be able to demonstrate experience in building training programmes and delivery to both field teams and local teams, they will be operationally focused and be able to demonstrate a track record of success in sales and development in a high end luxury business.

Applicants must be competent, motivated and flexible. Please submit a resume with three references that are relevant to the position. Competitive salary & excellent benefits to the right candidate.

Closing Date: 24th December 2021

Please apply in writing, including references to:

James Boyce, Director
Astwood Dickinson Company Ltd, 25 Front Street, Hamilton, HM11
Or email jboyce@astwooddickinson.bm

NO TELEPHONE ENQUIRIES PLEASE
WE ARE AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES EMPLOYER.