

Investment Analyst Opportunity

Responsibilities:

We are currently recruiting an emerging markets investment analyst to join our Multi-Asset Investment Team. The team is responsible for researching equity and fixed income securities and hedging instruments for inclusion in our portfolios. This role includes in-depth company analysis and financial modelling, as well as research into geopolitical and macro-economic issues, bond covenants and provisions, and bankruptcy and restructuring-related legal matters affecting the value of potential investments.

Essential Skills:

Measurably strong analytical, financial modelling and valuation skills. Accurate and keen attention to detail. Team player. Positive attitude. Honest and reliable. Self-starter who can thrive in an unstructured environment. Demonstrated good judgment. Diligent. Able to think quickly and clearly. Exceptional numerate ability. Excellent communication, management and organizational skills.

Qualifications:

Bachelor's degree in business or a finance-related discipline with an outstanding academic record from a top-tier university. Demonstrable experience in business model design. At least four years' experience in corporate investment analysis across distressed entities, restructurings and high yield corporate debt securities. Spanish language proficiency is preferred.

What We Offer:

We strive to attract talented individuals who have demonstrated the ability to excel in a challenging environment; the remuneration package will reflect this and will be heavily influenced by performance.

Instructions for Application:

If you believe that you possess the experience and have the potential required to excel in this role, please apply in writing with a detailed résumé and cover letter to opportunities@orbis.com or hand deliver an application to:

The Company:

Established in Bermuda in 1989, we have made a difference for clients for over 30 years by finding undervalued companies and investing with conviction. We invest in unpopular or ignored areas, considering long-term fundamentals rather than timing market trends. To execute, we search for exceptional people and reward them on performance, not politics. While our private ownership structure offers us freedom from external pressure for fast, false results, our financial outcomes are dependent on the value we deliver to our clients. Today, our 400 plus professionals work together across 8 countries to add value to over $30 billion in assets that clients have entrusted with us.
