Financial Advisory Senior Associate - Insolvency & Restructuring

As a Senior Associate in Insolvency & Restructuring, you'll help manage the client relationship on a daily basis. You'll share knowledge and leverage industry best practices and current legislation. Understanding liquidations in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations, financial statements, and reports along with the due diligence process is key to success in this role. You'll conduct research into assets held by a company and different disposal techniques to maximize the value of the company's investments and assist in annual reporting on the liquidation of funds. You'll make recommendations based on industry best practices and Deloitte's internal policies and procedures, and play a part in proposal writing, all while providing industry-leading client service.

The standard requirements of this role include:

- An internationally recognized professional accounting or legal qualification (CPA, CA, ACCA, LLM, CPI, or other relevant designation)
- At least 3 years of relevant experience in audit or advisory services, with a minimum of 1 years' experience in insolvency and restructuring services.

Preferred:

- Qualification in a common law jurisdiction (e.g. U.K., Canada, Australia).
- Experience with a Big 4 professional services firm.

All candidates must have demonstrated skills in client service and project management relevant to the role. This position requires inclusive team contributors, who have the proven ability to interact with a wide diversity of people across our organization. Candidates must have the ability to work a flexible schedule as needed.
