

Are you interested in pursuing a career as an Investment Advisor?

We are looking for Investment Advisors who are beginning to build their book of clients, have a go-getter attitude and are determined to make a real success of the opportunity.

Our Investment Advisors source, assist to build and advise upon a portfolio of assets from international high net worth clients. A LOM Investment Advisor develops long term relationships with our clients and becomes their trusted adviser. They develop these long-term relationships by assessing our clients' needs, responding to their queries, and supporting the client while investing their available capital in suitable LOM products and services tailored to their individual needs.

Experience needed:

College graduate with sales and/or financial background; hard-working and tenacious.

The below would be advantageous:

- Two years of previous trading or support experience in the securities brokerage industry with specific knowledge of equity trading;
- Intimate knowledge of account documentation and onboarding process;
- Candidates with a CISI, CSC, Series 7 or equivalent certification OR educational qualifications in Finance/Accounting will be favoured;
- LOM will select candidates that demonstrate tenacity, the ability to influence and build on relationships.

For more information, please see our Career page on our website (www.lom.com/careers/). If you are interested in this position, please email your CV and cover letter to careers@LOM.com.

About the LOM Group:

For 30 years, we have put our clients' needs first and pride ourselves in offering a high-service alternative to the world's largest private banks and wealth managers. We provide brokerage, custody and asset management services to both individuals and institutional clients across the globe.