

Our client, the Lerner Family, is seeking the services of an energetic, loving, and responsible Live-Out Caregiver/Housekeeper who will be responsible for the care of their 2 children and a mature family member for a minimum of 40 hours work per week.

The successful applicant will be assisting in the caring of their two young children, including, but not limited to, keeping meals and sleep times on a regular schedule/routine, and bathing the children as necessary, maintaining a clean and safe play area, providing interaction/stimulation activities for the children and providing homework assistance. Duties and responsibilities for the mature family member include but are not limited to assisting with being a companion, cooking, cleaning and diary management.

In addition to the role as Caregiver, the successful applicant will be required to perform light housekeeping duties (including cleaning, laundry, ironing), cooking, running errands, grocery shopping and other ad-hoc duties as required for both households.

Minimum Qualification, Skills & Experience:

- Three years' experience in a similar role caring for children and the elderly
- Clean and valid Bermuda driver's license and have own car, or must be willing to obtain
- Must be First Aid and CPR Certified
- Excellent communication skills and positive caring attitude
- Willing to travel overseas with the family for extended periods of time as required
- Be a non-smoker
- Ability and willingness to be flexible with hours worked, including weekends, evenings and overnights, and public holidays as needed

Applicants will be required to provide at least two (2) employment written references with details of work experience.
