

Video producer and client relations partner

Responsible for the organisation of resources and some creative aspects of our video productions as well as developing and executing weekly, monthly, and yearly plans to grow our services, identify new opportunities, preparing and presenting those ideas to senior businesspeople, building and maintaining trusted client relationships at a senior level. Experience in video production essential, preferably at least five years. It is critical that you have strong interpersonal and excellent communications skills, outstanding business etiquette, and impeccable spoken and written English. This position would suit a fast-paced, self-motivated go-getter who is bright, outgoing, energetic and above all, always positive, as well as a demonstrated ability to be nice, smart and get things done.

To apply please forward your resume and written references via email to icoles@bm.bm

Closing Date: October 28, 2022