

Kennedys

TWO YEAR LEGAL TRAINING CONTRACTS LONDON, 2024

Kennedys is a leading international law firm with 44 offices in 22 countries, including an office in Bermuda.

Kennedys has opened its application process for a legal training contract at its London office to commence in September 2024. Kennedys welcomes applications from qualified candidates in Bermuda who will join five Bermudians currently working with Kennedys London, including two trainees and two newly-qualified solicitors.

Kennedys' two-year training contract will allow you to develop relevant experience and skills at a leading London law firm. During your training contract you will complete four six-month seats across Kennedys' core practice areas, including in insurance and reinsurance, litigation and commercial, and you will benefit from Kennedys' in-house training programmes and exposure to the business environment of the City of London. There may also be secondment opportunities with Kennedys' Bermuda office and with Kennedys' Bermuda-based clients.

Obtaining a training contract at Kennedys will be the start of an exciting and successful career in a global law firm. At Kennedys you will gain early responsibility and client contact developing you into an excellent lawyer capable of running your own caseload once qualified. Bermudian applicants who complete a training contract with Kennedys will be eligible for admission as a solicitor in England & Wales and as a Barrister and Attorney in Bermuda.

To be considered for a Kennedys legal training contract you will need:

- To have completed or be on course to complete the LPC by September 2023 or September 2024
- To have achieved or be on course to achieve a 2:1 degree – not necessarily in Law
- 120 UCAS Points or equivalent at A-Level (please note General Studies will not be included)

To apply you must register and submit details via the Careers section of Kennedys' website <https://www.kennedyslaw.com>

Closing date: 31 December 2022