

DUNKLEY'S

requires

DAIRY BRAND MANAGER

This position requires the employee to manage our dairy brands including sales and purchases in both retail and foodservice. The individual must be able to develop relationships with key buyers in both retail and foodservice and grow sales and brand recognition. They must also build strong relationships with all suppliers, place orders on a weekly basis, control inventory and credits. This position requires the individual to plan and implement all dairy trade specials and coordinate with the Marketing Manager on marketing plans for each brand.

The successful applicant must be able to demonstrate experience in this area, be computer literate and also provide positive references.

Please come into our offices on Vesey Street to fully fill out an application form.

Dunkleys is an equal opportunity employer.