Senior Mortgage Insurance Executive

Arch Reinsurance Ltd. seeks to hire an experienced and accomplished mortgage insurance and structured finance professional to join our global mortgage (re)insurance business and assume a lead business development and underwriting role. As Arch Reinsurance Ltd. continues to build its global mortgage (re)insurance business we have identified the need for an experienced mortgage (re)insurance professional with demonstrated abilities and accomplishments in key markets in Europe, Asia and Australia.

Key Requirements: Current knowledge of, and experience with, each of the following areas:

- Detailed knowledge of residential mortgage loan products in Europe, Asia and Australia;
- Mortgage loan origination, underwriting and servicing practices
- Bank capital requirements and credit risk mitigation techniques as defined through work of the Basel Committee on Bank Supervision (i.e., Basel II and Basel III) and applied to residential mortgage loans
- Structured transactions and securitization as they relate to residential mortgage loan portfolios
- Pre-transaction and post-underwriting due diligence and audit standards
- Econometric methods, including available market solutions, used to forecast rates of default, repossession, loss-given-default and prepayment
- Business contacts at mortgage lenders in Europe, Australia and Asia

Qualifications & Experience:

In addition to the significant accomplishments and experience listed above, the successful candidate will have:

- An undergraduate degree in a technical discipline such as economics, mathematics, physics or engineering
- Graduate degree or MBA from a top tier university
- Fellowship of the Casualty Actuarial Society or equivalent

The candidate must be willing and able to travel extensively throughout Europe, Asia and Australia in the development of markets and clients and the identification of transaction opportunities.

Arch offers an attractive compensation and benefits package and the opportunity for growth in a dynamic business environment.
