MANAGING DIRECTOR - ENERGY

Aon (Bermuda) Ltd. provides clients with specialist insurance broking, reinsurance expertise and consultancy services.

We require a highly experienced insurance broking professional to provide senior level technical and professional expertise to our major clients and professional insurance broking staff, particularly with respect to Commercial Casualty Insurance, including General and Products Liability, Integrated Risk and Alternate Risk Transfer Coverages for Oil and Gas and Energy related industries.

The successful candidate must have a minimum of 15 years of professional insurance experience with an emphasis on major North American commercial accounts. Demonstrated expertise in occurrence, occurrence-reported and claims-made liability policy forms together with an extensive background in Oil and Gas and Energy related coverages is essential.

The position requires direct interaction with senior client and carrier executives, including marketing and technical presentations, as well as regular business travel and frequent client entertainment. The successful candidate will also have management and administrative responsibilities and, as such, must be able to demonstrate strong interpersonal skills and the ability to make decisions under pressure.

Only qualified Bermudians, spouses of Bermudians or PRC holders will be considered for this position.

Applications must include a detailed resume with references, submitted under confidential cover to:
