

Senior Underwriter

Flagstone Réassurance Suisse SA (Bermuda) seeks applicants for the position of Senior Underwriter. Reporting to the Chief Underwriting Officer – North America, the successful candidate will join a team of dynamic and highly qualified individuals.

Main responsibilities will include:

- Implementing strategies for the successful underwriting of a diverse book of North American treaty reinsurance business
- Being an integral member of the North American underwriting team responsible for multiple risk classes
- Acting as ambassador for Flagstone Re and promoting it to the broker community and North American client base
- Ensuring compliance with laws, rules and regulations affecting Flagstone's business
- Assisting in the development and maintenance of risk exposure management tools

The successful applicant will possess the following:

- Minimum of 3 years experience in a similar position within the reinsurance industry
- Either a MBA professional qualification or substantial progress towards obtaining such qualification at a prestigious university;
- Actuarial Science and or finance background would be advantageous
- A demonstrably successful underwriting track record
- The ability to meet deadlines, good organizational skills and initiative
- Excellent communication skills, and demonstrable strategic awareness
- An ability to work well with and motivate others
- Flexibility to be relocated permanently to a Flagstone office in a different location

Interested candidates are asked to submit a cover letter and updated resume to careers@flagstonere.com. Closing date for applications is April 25, 2011.