Head of International Life

The Argus Group is seeking a "hands on" individual to manage and develop the Group's international life insurance and annuity operations, and the Bermuda Life insurance operations. The successful candidate will also be expected to work closely with the Sales & Marketing and Actuarial departments for servicing all business development requirements.

Core responsibilities include:

- Manage the life insurance and annuity new business, underwriting, investment, reinsurance and ongoing administration functions and ensure they are performed in an accurate and timely manner
- Ensure that client reporting, compliance, accounting functions and financial responsibilities are performed in accordance with policies, procedures and legal requirements
- Develop and manage administrative processes and systems to optimize performance and client service
- Work closely with Sales and Marketing, Actuarial, Legal and Compliance on case management, regulatory issues, product and illustration support and advisor relations
- Develop and manage administrative and client service relationships with distributors, investment managers, policyholder advisors, reinsurers and other service providers to service the business in a highly professional and efficient manner

Qualifications and experience required:

- Professional insurance or related qualification (e.g. Bachelor of Arts in Business, Administration, MBA, CA or FLMI)
- Seven to ten years of managing life insurance and annuity administration, in the high net worth Private Placement arena with staff supervision, familiar with U.S. and Canadian tax compliant products
- Strong in insurance process development
- Experience in dealing with high net worth individuals and their professional advisors
- Experience and knowledge of multi asset class investment administration

Closing Date: Friday, April 29, 2011
