

Gary & Phalimar Williams

28th April 2011

Gary, as we celebrate our 28th anniversary today, I pause for a moment to reflect upon the powerful words in the last anniversary card from our daughter the late Shalimar Gina:

Mom & Dad

Children seldom understand
The trials their parents face,
The dreams deferred or sacrifices made Until one day when they are grown With grown-up choices too, and realize the debt they can't repay.

Only you two know all that has gone into your marriage Or how many challenges you've faced, but I know how much I love you For all that you've done to stay together. It couldn't have been easy To keep your patience, your sense of humor, but you always pulled through.

And in the process you taught me a lot about
The power of commitment, the importance of family,
And how to get by in a less-than-perfect world.
I'm very proud of you for that.

Luv Phalimar – Gina

Happy Anniversary
