

Legal Counsel

Enstar Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Enstar Group Limited, a Nasdaq listed company which acquires and manages insurance and reinsurance companies and portfolios in run-off, is seeking a mature, dependable, self-motivated person with excellent legal experience in corporate run-off insurance and interpersonal skills for the role of Legal Counsel. The position will cover corporate and contentious work, including transactional assignments. This position will appeal to a well-organized and experienced candidate.

The Group operates in UK, US and other European and Asian jurisdictions and the candidate will be required to operate in all of these, obtaining external support only when necessary

The main responsibilities of the position are as follows:

- Qualified lawyer with a minimum of 5 years post qualified experience with detailed experience of run-off in the insurance and reinsurance industry.
- Extensive experience in preparing and reviewing stock purchase agreements and related M&A materials, documentation for solvent schemes of arrangement and other restructurings as well as the full range of documentation that is required for a run-off company.
- Excellent analytical, legal and presentation skills together with advanced PC spreadsheet skills.
- The confidence and ability to lead legal negotiations with the representatives of counterparties, as well as the proven competence in identifying issues that require the attention of senior management.
- The ability to communicate in an effective and professional manner with both senior management and clients

This position will require meeting strict deadlines and the successful candidate will be required to work additional hours including weekends and public holidays when necessary. Traveling on short notice will also be required.

Please apply in writing, enclosing a detailed resume, by May 13th, 2011 to:

The Human Resources Manager

Enstar Limited
P.O. Box HM 2267
Hamilton HM JX