

SJ CONSTRUCTION LTD.

requires a

WORKING FOREPERSON

The successful candidate must be reliable and will be expected to work on his/her own initiative and have five (5) years experience in residential and commercial construction. They will be responsible for the following:

- Supervising ongoing construction projects
- Masonry and form carpentry
- Supervising masons, junior mechanics and laborers, as well as being expected to work alongside them to ensure only the highest quality of work is produced
- Work with sub-contractors, order supplies and maintain safety site standards
- Read plans, building layouts, coordinate and manage staff to ensure that all projects are completed on time and to the required specifications
- Will be required to provide on the job training for junior mechanics and skilled laborers to ensure that employees skills are maximized to their full potential
- Must have own transportation, punctual, willing to work weekends and public holidays, and demonstrate a high level of integrity.

All candidates will be subject to random drug testing and a police check. Please send two (2) written references with details of work experiences and two (2) character references to: SJ Construction Ltd., P.O. Box FL 526 Flatts FL BX.

Closing date August 15, 2011.