

The Royal Hamilton Amateur Dinghy Club

invites applications for the following position

Sailing Coach

The R.H.A.D.C. is currently looking to recruit experienced sailing coaches to join their year-round programme. The successful applicants will report to the Head Coach, and will be responsible for the management of all waterfront instruction, sailing and powerboat instruction, sailing center administration, and assist in running the center to international standards with a focus on safety and excellent customer service.

Candidates must demonstrate ability in teaching at all levels, from “Learn to Sail” to high performance and racing in Optimist, 420s and Open Bics, plus the ability to mentor junior instructors. Previous team and center management experience is essential. RYA qualification is preferred. Previous experience coaching children and adults to race at an international standard in dinghies is required.

Closing Date: November 16th, 2011
