Dear ,

I wish to convey to you my unreserved apology in relation to the comments made to you by me on , during a phone call that I had with you on that day.

, you did not deserve to hear those remarks which were highly dis-respectful of you as a woman. I took license with  and in retrospect I am ashamed for having done so. It was in bad taste and I take full responsibility for them.

Would I have liked to have known that my daughter or granddaughter or wife for that matter -was the recipient of those types of remarks by someone in their respective workplaces - through no fault of their own? No. I would not.

Lastly, I sincerely want to thank you for providing me with this opportunity to share these thoughts with you in order to bring a close to this matter.

I truly wish you all the best in your future endeavours.

Regards,

Rolfe Commissiong, JP, M.P.
