Chart 2: GDP Comparison by Country

Income per capita is highest for Finance based economies. Since 1980, Finance Based economies have grown faster than Service Based. Tourism dependent economies have lagged.

- Bermuda: Largest two individual constituents of GDP are international business and real estate activities.
- Cayman: The main industries are financial services, tourism, and real estate sales and development.
- USA: Services Sector contributes over 75% to GDP.
- Bahamas: Tourism accounts for 50 per cent of GDP.
- Jamaica: The tourism industry earns over 50 percent of the country's total foreign exchange earnings and provides about one-fourth of all jobs.

Source: worldbank.org